

Merry Christmas 2010

Larry and Matt at Tubac during our trip to Az in July. We drove to Green Valley by way of the Grand Canyon and Sedona – covered 3,000 miles over 10 days.

On our return from Green Valley we stopped off in Las Vegas so Matt could show Emily “the strip”. Larry and I saw “The Rat Pack Returns.” It was full of great music.

Halloween this year was quite an event. Trenton wanted to make pumpkin pinatas which were fun but messy! He still loves soccer and is on a travelling team. He hunted for the first time this year.

Matt and Jenny surprised us with their costumes. Emily planned décor and games for the family. She has become a young lady at age 11. She loves to bake and has been sewing a bit.

Everyone was to have a costume for the party. We made sloppy joes for supper and played a couple of games. The event was 2 weeks in the planning.

LARRY & SUSAN We have a web site where you can find all our dance activities. We'll continue to teach and travel as long as we're blessed with good health. We had 2 long driving trips this year – 1 to Bemidji, Mn. for their state festival and then Sioux Falls, S.D. for a large regional event. We're flying to south Texas in Feb., 2011 for a vacation to dance and see the sights .
